Background and Summary:

NMPED is releasing redistribution to High Schools That Work (HSTW) sites. Chaparral High School and Santa Teresa High School are receiving an award amount of $13,721.15 each. The focus of the redistribution is to address any number of the 10 Key Practices of the HSTW Framework, to ensure progress in the implementation of strategies that strengthen or address the school’s Educational Plan for Student Success (EPSS) and include integration of academic and Career-Technical Education (CTE), and to support Career-Technical Education Programs in New Mexico.
