Background and Summary:
The District issues general obligation bonds that have Continuing Disclosure (CD) requirements under federal securities laws. In order for the District to maintain compliance with the CD requirements, formalized procedures are necessary. The District's financial advisor and bond counsel have indicated that the Board and Superintendent should appoint a Compliance Officer for the purposes of the Continiuing Disclosure Compliance Procedures. The recommendation is that the CFO is appointed the Compliance Officer and that the procedures identified as part of the resolution be adopted.
Recommendation:
