

REGULATIONREGULATION*STUDENT SAFETY*(Restraint and Seclusion Notice and Review)Parental Notification:

- A school employee shall provide written or oral notice to a student's parent/guardian on the day applied, unless circumstances do not permit such notice, otherwise the notice shall be within twenty-four (24) hours after the incident.
- A school employee shall provide the student's parent/guardian with written documentation including information about any persons, locations or activities that may have triggered the behavior, if known, and specific information about the behavior and its precursors, the type of restraint or seclusion technique used and the duration of its use whether by school personnel or law enforcement.

Incident Review

Schools shall review strategies used to address a student's dangerous behavior if use of restraint or seclusion techniques for an individual student has occurred two (2) or more times during any thirty (30)-calendar-day period. The review shall include:

- a review of the incidents in which restraint or seclusion techniques were used and an analysis of how future incidents may be avoided, including whether the student requires a functional behavioral assessment; and
- a meeting of the student's individualized education program team, behavioral intervention plan team or student assistance team within two (2) weeks of each use of restraint or seclusion after the second use within a thirty (30)-calendar-day period to provide recommendations for avoiding future incidents requiring the use of restraint or seclusion.
