Background and Summary:

A revision to Policy JKD is being proposed by NMSBA at the request of a practicing New Mexico attorney who pointed out that, by following the current language in Policy JKD, districts were having difficulty holding long-term suspension hearings within the ten (10) day limit of a temporary suspension. As a result, current language in NMAC, which gives districts three (3) options - other than having to return the student to school at the end of the temporary suspension - was added to Policy JKD.

Recommendation:
