Background and Summary:

The GISD Migrant Program, Title I Part C, has received a Carryover allocation. The Migrant Mentors and the Federal Programs Coordinator will implement a summer program for Migrant Students which will include parenting sessions addressing social emotional concerns arising from the migrant life-style. This Carryover Allocation will support costs of materials, supplies and In-House talent presenters for the students. The parent presenter will be the same vendor who has presented parenting classes at the district Family Literacy Centers during the school year.
