Background and Summary:

Funds were initially allocated on support services and will be relocated to direct instruction, where they are needed for all schools. Funds will be used to support all STEM programs, robotic programs, esports, science programs and all materials needed for the students learning in these areas. These funds will ensure the STEM programs will be more accessible, engaging and relevant to a wider range of students. Will support the learning loss because of COVID and the lack of opportunities students had during that time. Will support critical thinking, problem solving skills, teamwork, collaboration and strategic planning.
