USE OF TECHNOLOGY RESOURCES
IN INSTRUCTION

Appropriate Use of Electronic Information Services

The District may provide electronic information services (EIS) to qualified students, teachers, and other personnel who attend or who are employed by the District. Electronic information services include networks (e.g., LAN, WAN, Internet), databases, and any computer-accessible source of information, whether from hard drives, tapes, compact disks (CDs), floppy disks, flash drives, memory cards or other electronic sources. The use of the services shall be in support of education, research, and the educational goals of the District. To assure that the EIS is used in an appropriate manner and for the educational purposes intended, the District will require anyone who uses the EIS to receive instruction in and follow its guidelines and procedures for appropriate use. Instruction in appropriate online behavior shall include how to interact with other individuals on social networking websites and in chat rooms and cyberbullying awareness and response. Anyone who misuses, abuses, or chooses not to follow the EIS guidelines and procedures will be denied access to the District's EIS and may be subject to disciplinary action.

Each user will be required to sign an EIS user agreement. The District may log the use of all systems and monitor all system utilization. Accounts may be closed and files may be deleted at any time. The District is not responsible for any service interruptions, changes, or consequences. The District reserves the right to establish rules and regulations as necessary for the efficient operation of the electronic information services.

The District does not assume liability for information retrieved via EIS, nor does it assume any liability for any information lost, damaged, or unavailable due to technical or other difficulties.

Web and Internet Publishing

Documents created for the Web must have a purpose that falls within at least one of the following two categories: (1) Support of curriculum, instruction, and learning, and (2) Communication with parents and the community.

All information must accurately reflect the mission, goals, policies, program, and activities of the School District. All subject matter should relate to curriculum, instruction, and general information that is appropriate, or it should relate to activities of the District or the schools within the District.

Filtering and Internet Safety

The District shall provide for technology protection measures that protect against Internet access by both adults and minors to visual depictions that are obscene, child pornography, or, with respect to use of the computers by students, harmful to students. The protective measures shall also include monitoring the online activities of students.

Limits, controls, and prohibitions shall be placed on student:

- Access to inappropriate matter.

- Safety and security in direct electronic communications.

- Unauthorized online access or activities.

- Unauthorized disclosure, use and dissemination of personal information.

Electronic communication directed at a student, that is published with the intent that it be seen by or disclosed to that student and that substantially interferes with the student's ability to participate in or benefit from the services, activities or privileges provided by the public school are prohibited.

The Superintendent is responsible for establishing and enforcing the District's electronic information services guidelines and procedures for appropriate technology protection measures (filters), monitoring, and use.
