Background and Summary:

Gadsden ISD has received a Title I Part A Carryover for 2018-19 in the amount of $4,014,126.11. In addition to funding distributions to K-12 campuses for instructional supplies and materials, the Carryover will be used to support basic computer literacy for parents through the Family Literacy Center, transportation for Homeless and Foster students, transportation for Parent Outreach Ambassadors, a Federal Social Worker, District Level Intervention Specialist, PreK Instructional Coaches, and PreK Coordinator. In addition, this funding is designated for the Bilingual Department to promote CLR, and the Curriculum and Secondary Departments to strengthen Equity in instructional services. An allocation has also been designated for the Technology Department to continue to ensure district-wide availability and renewal of devices and licenses needed for remote and in-class instruction.
